Mr. Rudradipta Nandy
... for the State

Learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that he is in custody for more than two years. He prays for bail of the petitioner.

Learned Counsel appearing for the State opposes the prayer for bail.

Materials on record prima facie show that the petitioner had committed murder of his wife.

In view of gravity of the offence, we are not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

The application for bail is, thus, rejected.

Trial court is requested to conclude the trial at the earliest without granting any unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties.

Having considered the materials on record prima facie disclosing involvement of the petitioner in the alleged crime of misappropriation of monies of the innocent depositors and the fact that the petitioner has absconded for a protracted period of time, we are not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner at this stage.

The application for bail is, thus, rejected.
