C.R.R. No.1777 of 2012
(Via Video Conference)

In Re: An application under Section 401 read with Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

M/s. Montari Industries Limited & Anr.
Versus
The State of West Bengal & Anr.

Mr. Kaushik Gupta,
Ms. Sreyashee Biswas.
...for the CESC/opposite party no.2.

The present revisional application has been preferred in connection with the proceedings arising out of Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act relating to Complaint Case No.5147 of 2000 and the findings arrived at by the learned Metropolitan Magistrate, 14th Court, Calcutta.

Having regard to the contentions advanced by the petitioners, I am not inclined to dispose of the case on merits. However, as the petitioners are not present before this Court, I dismiss the revisional application for default.

Accordingly, CRR 1777 of 2012 is dismissed for default.

Pending application, if any, is consequently disposed of.

Interim order, if any, is hereby vacated.

The learned Metropolitan Magistrate, 14th Court, Calcutta is directed to execute the sentence and compensation.

The Department is directed to communicate this order to the learned Metropolitan Magistrate, 14th Court, Calcutta within a period of seven days from date.

The learned Metropolitan Magistrate, 14th Court, Calcutta is directed to act on the server copy of this order.
