In The High Court At Calcutta
Constitutional Writ Jurisdiction
Appellate Side

W.P.A. 12701 of 2021
(Via Video Conference)

Kamala Bhunia
-versus
The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Mr. Biswajit Mal.
...For the Petitioner.

Affidavit-of-service filed in Court today be taken on record.

None appears on behalf of the State respondents in spite of service.

The husband of the petitioner was an approved Hostel Employee of Sabang Sajani Kanta Mahavidyalay. He died-in-harness on 17.06.2006. The grievance of the petitioner is that the gratuity amount was disbursed to her only on 18.02.2020. The petitioner claims interest on delayed payment of the gratuity amount.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner and considered the orders passed by this court in similar facts.

It is settled law that the right of a retired employee to get his retiral dues on the date of attaining superannuation is a valuable right which accrues in his favour on the date of his attaining superannuation.

Further, gratuity and pension are no more considered to be a bounty to be handed out by the State at its whim. An employee has a statutory right to receive gratuity and pension upon retirement. If payment of such gratuity and pension is delayed the retired employee is surely entitled to get some interest for such delayed payment.

In the present case, it was the bounden duty of the State to disburse the gratuity and pension amount on the due date. If it has failed to do so and has released such amount after unexplained delay, it is obliged to pay interest to the retired employee. Pension and gratuity are welfare provisions aimed at maintaining the life of a retired employee and his/her dependents. This is compensatory in nature.

In view of the aforesaid, I direct the Director of Public Instruction, Government of West Bengal and also the concerned Treasury Officer to pay interest to the writ petitioner at the rate of 5% per annum on the gratuity calculated on and from the date of death till the date of actual payment.

Such payment is to be made within eight weeks from the date of communication of the certified copy of this order to the concerned authorities.

Since no affidavit in opposition has been invited, the allegations contained in the writ petition are deemed not be admitted.

W.P.A. 12701 of 2021 is disposed of.

There will be no order as to costs.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order be supplied to the parties, if applied for, as early as possible.
