... For the victim

Petitioner seeks anticipatory bail.

Supplementary affidavit filed on behalf of the petitioner in Court be taken on record.

Learned Advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that the Court granted anticipatory bail to other co-accused. The petitioner seeks parity with regard thereto.

Learned Advocate appearing for the State submits that there were two police complaints inter alia against the petitioner. The police complaint relates to funds with the Gram Panchayat was in respect of which Gram Panchayatn is the justifying authority. The second police complaint in which the petitioner seeks anticipatory bail relates to funds which were placed at the disposal of the petitioner as the Prodhan. He submits that the petitioner cannot seek parity on the basis of other co-accused been granted anticipatory bail.

The victim is represented.

Considering the fact that there were two police complaints and considering the fact that one co-accused was granted anticipatory bail and considering the fact that the petitioner as the Prodhan stands on a different footing than co-accused who was granted anticipatory bail and considering the gravity of the offence and the complicity of the petitioner therein and considering the fact that public are involved, we are not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

CRM 5723 of 2021 is dismissed.
