Learned Advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner deposited the entire defalcated amount with the authorities. The non-payment was due to inadvertence.

Learned Advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the contents in the case diary and considering the nature of the offences, we are inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be released on anticipatory bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and with a further condition that the petitioner shall meet the Investigating Officer once in a month till the conclusion of the investigation and on further condition that the petitioner shall appear before the Court below and pray for regular bail within four weeks from date.
