Petitioner seeks anticipatory bail.

Learned Advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that the complaint was lodged after 22 years of marriage and four children.

Learned Advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the injury report and to the statement of the doctor treating the victim.

Considering the materials in the case diary and considering the nature of injury appearing from the injury report, we are inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be released on anticipatory bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on condition that petitioner shall meet the investigating officer once in a month until further orders and on further condition that petitioner shall appear before the Court below and pray for regular bail within four weeks from date.

The prayer for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.

CRM 6029 of 2021 is disposed of.
