Learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is in custody for 205 days. He prays for bail. It is further submitted there is no direct evidence connecting the petitioner with the murder of the deceased.

Learned Counsel appearing for the State opposes prayer for bail and submits the petitioner was present in the house when the victim was strangled and thrown into the pond.

We have considered materials on record. There are prima facie materials connecting the petitioner with the alleged crime.

In view of the aforesaid circumstances and the gravity of the offence, we are not inclined to extend the petitioner on bail at this stage.

The application for bail is, thus, rejected.

Having considered the materials on record prima facie disclosing involvement of the petitioner in the alleged crime of misappropriation of monies of the innocent depositors and the fact that the petitioner has absconded for a protracted period of time, we are not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner at this stage.

The application for bail is, thus, rejected.
