Petitioner seeks bail.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that, the petitioner is in custody since July 25, 2021. Since the police submitted charge-sheet, further detention of the petitioner is not required. She contends that the petitioner and the de-facto complainant were known to each other and that the complaint is a result of a relationship going sour.

Learned advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to a statement recorded under Section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure and to the medical report.

Considering the statements recorded under Section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure and injury report and the fact that the police submitted charge-sheet, we are inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Ranaghat, Nadia, subject to the condition that the petitioner shall appear before the trial court on every date of hearing until further orders and shall not intimidate the witnesses and/or tamper with evidence in any manner whatsoever.

In the event the petitioner fails to appear before the trial court without justifiable cause, the trial court shall be at liberty to cancel his bail automatically without further reference to this Court.

The application for bail is, accordingly, allowed.
