....for the State

Petitioners seek anticipatory bail.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioners submits that, the principal accused were granted bail and the police submitted charge-sheet. Consequently, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required.

Learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the contents of the case diary.

Considering that the other co-accused were granted bail and that the police submitted charge-sheet, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- each, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on condition that the petitioners shall appear before the jurisdictional court on every date fixed and pray for regular bail within a period of four weeks from date.

This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
