Petitioner is in custody for 141 days. It is submitted on behalf of the petitioner there was love affair between the parties and ingredients of offence punishable under Section 306 are not disclosed in the facts of the case.

Learned lawyer for the State opposes the prayer of bail

We have considered the materials on record. Victim had committed suicide as the love affair had turned stale. No suicide note was left behind by the victim. In the aforesaid facts, whether the petitioner had abetted the suicide of the victim or not may be assessed during trial.

Under such circumstances and keeping in mind the period of detention suffered and as investigation is complete, we are inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, the petitioner be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- with two sureties of like amount each, one of whom must be local, to the satisfaction of the learned

ACJM, Ranaghat, Nadia on condition that the petitioner shall appear before the trial court on every date of hearing and shall not intimidate witnesses or tamper with evidence in any manner whatsoever.

In the event he fails to appear before the trial court without justifiable cause, the trial court shall be at liberty to cancel his bail automatically without reference to this court.

The application being CRM 6467 of 2021 is disposed of.
