In Re : Smt. Puspa Samanta petitioner

Mr. Subrata Bhattacharjya
.....for the petitioner

Ms. Purnima Ghosh
....for the State

Petitioner seeks anticipatory bail.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is the purchaser of an immovable property. Defacto complainant filed a case of cheating against the petitioner. He further submits that there is a civil suit pending between the parties.

Learned advocate appearing for the State submits that the petitioner purchased an immovable property from persons who do not have title to the property.

Considering the materials in the case diary and considering the fact that there is a civil suit pending between the parties regarding immovable property, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on further conditions that the petitioner shall co-operate with investigation and shall appear before the jurisdictional court and pray for regular bail within a period of four weeks from date.

This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
