Petitioners seek anticipatory bail.

Learned Advocate appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners were falsely implicated. Five several criminal complaints were lodged against the petitioners. In two of such criminal complaints the petitioners were acquitted. There was initially a stay granted by the revisional court with regard to the present police complaint. However, such stay was subsequently vacated. The criminal complaint is of 2007.

Learned Advocate appearing for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the fact that the allegations are largely based on documentary evidence, we are inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest, the petitioners shall be released on anticipatory bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) each, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on further condition that the petitioners shall report before the investigating officer once in a month.

The prayer for anticipatory bail is allowed.

CRM 6568 of 2021 is disposed of.
