Court. No. 19
GB

C.O. 1622 of 2014

Muktirani Bera
Vs.
Gandhi Ashram, represented by Secretary Surendra Nath Pradhan & Ors.

(Through Video Conference)

Ms. Sumitra Das.

...for the Petitioner.

Mr. Kaushik Dey.

...for Opposite Party No.1.

Learned advocates for the respective parties appear before this Court.

The learned advocate for the petitioner has filed a letter written by the constituent attorney of the petitioner, Sri Dwipendra Nath Bera with the instruction that the petitioner does not want to continue with the present revisional application. Written instruction is taken on record.

Hence, the revisional application is dismissed for non-prosecution.
