C.R.R. No.2257 of 2012
(Via Video Conference)

In Re: An application under Section 401 read with Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

Krishna Chandra Sarkar
Versus
The State of West Bengal & Anr.

Ms. Imran Ali,
Ms. Debjani Sahu.
...for the State.

As none appears for the State, Ms. Debjani Sahu, learned advocate, who ordinarily appears on behalf of the State, is directed to appear and represent on behalf of the State. Her appointment may be regularised by the concerned authorities.

The present revisional application was preferred in respect of quashing of the proceedings arising out of Kushmandi Police Station Case No.16 of 2008 dated 5.02.2008.

The records of the revisional application reflect that on 17th August, 2012, an adjournment was sought for on behalf of the petitioner. Till date the revisional application has not been admitted.

Having regard to the fact that the present stage of the proceedings have not been furnished before this Court and the facts canvassed in the revisional application involve questions of facts, I am not inclined to interfere with the prayer sought for.

Accordingly, CRR 2257 of 2012 is dismissed.

Pending application, if any, is consequently disposed of.

All parties shall act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.
