....for the State

Petitioner seek anticipatory bail.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that, subsequent to the police complaint, the petitioner and the de-facto complainant entered into an 'talaqnama'. The de-facto complainant married another person thereafter.

Learned advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the contents of the case diary.

Considering the materials in the case diary and considering the fact that the police filed charge-sheet and considering the fact that the de-facto complainant and the petitioner entered into a 'talaqnama', we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/-, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on condition that the petitioner shall appear before the jurisdictional court on every date fixed and pray for regular bail within a period of four weeks from date.

This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
