Petitioner seeks anticipatory bail.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that, the police complaint is a result of a relationship going sour.

Learned advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the contents of the case diary and the medical report of the victim.

Considering the statements recorded under Section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure of the victim and the medical report, we grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of

Rs.10,000/-, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on further condition that the petitioner shall appear before the Investigating Officer once a month till the conclusion of the investigation and on condition that the petitioner shall appear before the jurisdictional court on every date fixed and pray for regular bail within a period of four weeks from date.

This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
