... for the respondent no.1

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the subject matter of the writ application may have become infructuous by efflux of time. Since the bank has not taken any steps for 14 years now to evict the petitioners, any step that may be taken by the bank shall be done with due notice to the writ petitioners.

Learned counsel for the bank submits that the bank has already taken steps.

The bank may continue such proceedings in accordance with law. However, prior notice of such proceeding shall be given to the writ petitioners.

With the aforesaid observations, the writ petition is disposed of.

There shall be no order as to costs.

All parties are to act on a server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this court.
