Mr. Jit Roy,

... for the petitioners

Mr. Jit Roy, learned advocate for the petitioners is present.

Record shows that the notice of this application has not been served on the opposite parties.

The petitioners by filing the present application under Article 227 of the Constitution of India have prayed for expeditious disposal of the Title Suit No. 108 of 2014, pending before the learned Civil Judge (Junior Division) at Barrackpore.

The learned advocate for the petitioners submits that the learned Court below has been granting unnecessary adjournments and due to which, there is a delay in disposal of the case and such delay is causing hardship to the petitioners.

Having regard to the nature of relief claimed by the petitioners, being a prayer for expeditious disposal of the title suit, I do not find any need to serve notice of the present application on the opposite parties and it is not likely to cause any prejudice to the interest of the opposite parties. Therefore, service of notice upon the opposite parties is dispensed with.

The learned Civil Judge (Junior Division) at Barrackpore, is requested to dispose of the Title Suit No. 108 of 2014, as expeditiously as possible and in any event, within a period of one year from the date of communication of this order, without granting any unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties except only on reasonable ground.

Accordingly, the revisional application being C.O. 2089 of 2021 is disposed of.

There shall be no order as to costs.

Parties are to act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.

Urgent Photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be given to the parties, upon compliance of all formalities.
