In Re : Rajesh Sarkar petitioner

Mr. Jisan Iqubal Hossain
.....for the petitioner

Mr. Soumik Ganguli
....for the State

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that there was a dispute amongst the family members.

Learned advocate appearing for the State opposes the prayer for anticipatory bail.

However, keeping in mind the nature of allegations including nature of injuries which do not appear to be grievous and in the light of the aforesaid submission made on behalf of the petitioner, we are of the opinion that custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not necessary and he may be granted anticipatory bail.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and also be subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and on further conditions that the petitioner shall appear before the court below and pray for regular bail within a period of four weeks from date.

This application for anticipatory bail is, thus, allowed.
