Petitioners seek anticipatory bail.

Learned Advocate appearing for the petitioners submits that the incident was due to property dispute.

Learned Advocate appearing for the State draws the attention of the Court to the injury reports and the statement of the victim.

Considering the nature of the incident and the complicity of the petitioners therein and considering the fact that some of the co-accused was granted bail by the jurisdictional Court, we are inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest, the petitioners shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) each, with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the arresting officer and subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and with a further condition that the petitioner nos. 1 and 2 shall meet the Investigating Officer once in a month till the conclusion of the investigation and petitioner no. 3 shall cooperate with the investigation and on further condition that the petitioners shall appear before the Court below and pray for regular bail within four weeks from date.

The prayer for anticipatory bail is allowed.
