CRR 2699 of 2012
(via video conference)

Smt. Minati Tapadar
-Vs-
The State of West Bengal & Ors.

The revisional application was preferred against the order dated 27.6.2012 passed by the Learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Hooghly in C.R. Case No.322 of 2012.

The facts of the case is that initially against an order under Section 156(3) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the revisional application was preferred before the Learned Chief Judicial Magistrate Hooghly.

On perusal of the application, by order dated 27.6.2012 the Ld. Trial Court was of the opinion that no case for investigation has been made out, as such the Magistrate refused such prayer for investigation.

But on the same breath Ld. Magistrate on considering the allegations under Section 156(3) of the Code of Criminal Procedure was of the view that the same is to be treated as a petition of complaint.

Having regard to the order passed by the learned Magistrate, I am of the opinion, that there is no illegality in the order passed. No interference as such is called for.

Accordingly, CRR 2699 of 2012 is dismissed

Interim order, if any, is hereby vacated.

All pending connected applications, if any, are consequently disposed of.

All parties shall act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Hon'ble Court.
