(Via Video Conference)

In Re: An application under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

Smt. Indira Ganguly
Versus
Smt. Silpi Majumder

The revisional application was preferred challenging the order dated 19.06.2012 passed by the learned Metropolitan Magistrate, 15th Court, Calcutta issuing warrant of arrest against the petitioner in connection with C. Case No.2047 of 2006 under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act.

At the time of admission of the revisional application on 04.12.2014, a co-ordinate Bench of this Court directed to deposit a sum of Rs.75,000/- before the appellate court and upon such payment directed for release the petitioner on bail. By the same order, the co-ordinate Bench was pleased to direct the bail shall continue for three weeks after X-mas vacation.

Having regard to the orders so passed by this Court on 4.12.2014 and no information being furnished regarding the compliance of the aforesaid order till date and the subject-matter of the case relates to issue of conviction and sentence, I am not inclined to dispose of the revisional application on merits. However, the revisional application being CRR No.3003 of 2012 is dismissed for default.

Pending application, if any, is consequently disposed of.

Interim order, if any, is hereby vacated.

Learned Magistrate is directed to execute the sentence.

Department is directed to communicate this order to the learned court below.

Lower court records, if any, be sent back to the jurisdictional court.

All parties shall act on the server copy of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.
