In Re: An application under Section 397 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 read with Section 401 of the said Code.

AND

In the matter of:-

Sri Samir Maity @ Sri Samir Chandra Maity
... petitioner

None appears for the petitioner as well as for the opposite parties.

Records reflect that by an order passed on January 2012 the Court was pleased to vacate the interim order earlier passed by this Court.

I have perused the revisional application and judgement and order under challenge dated 28th September, 2010 passed by the learned Judicial Magistrate, 2nd Court, Uluberia, Howrah in connection with Criminal Misc.Case No.63 of 2009.

By the said order, learned Magistrate after considering evidence on record was pleased to come to a finding thereby quantify maintenance of Rs.1800/- per month to the wife and Rs.1200/- per month to the minor child.

Having regard to the present cost of living and the financial capacity of the present petitioner, the learned Magistrate passed such order regarding the quantum of maintenance to be granted and as such the reasons so assigned by the learned Magistrate do not call for any interference. Thus, the revisional application is without any merit.

Accordingly, C.R.R.3309 of 2010 is dismissed. All the connected applications are accordingly disposed of.

All parties shall act in terms of copy of this order downloaded from the official website of this Court.
