C.R.R. No.1405 of 2020
(Physical Hearing)

In Re: An application under Section 482 read with Section 401 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

In the matter of:-

Akbar Ali

.....petitioner

Mr. Robiul Islam

... for the petitioner

Mr. Saswata Gopal Mukherji, Ld.P.P.,
Mr. Arijit Ganguly

... for the State

The Court is called upon under Section 482 Cr.P.C. soliciting a direction for expeditious disposal of the pending N.D.P.S. case of learned Judge, Special Court, under N.D.P.S. Act, Murshidabad vide N.D.P.S. Case No.12 of 2018.

Learned advocate for the petitioner submits that there has been no substantial advancement of the trial, and as a result of which there has been protraction. Thus the movement of the trial is against the concept of expeditious disposal. Learned advocate proposes for fixing an outer limit as regards conclusion of the trial, to which the Court is not agreeable, bearing in mind the direct impact of the COVID-19, and as such the direction, as proposed to be obtained from this Court for fixation of outer limit is neither advisable, nor feasible at the moment.

Mr. Ganguly, learned advocate representing the State submits that till date, out of 30 witnesses, 11 witnesses have been examined. Due to COVID-19 there has been much disturbance in the ordinary function of the Court and bearing the same in mind, it appears that there has been progress in the trial, though not reached the optimum level. However, the revisional application may be disposed of, so as to subserve the purpose of justice, giving following direction.

Learned court below is directed to make effective utilization of the dates, so far fixed, taking sincerest support from the learned prosecutor, aiming at expeditious disposal, without granting unnecessary adjournment, unless it is extremely unavoidable.

With this direction/observation, the instant revisional application stands disposed of.

All parties shall act in terms of copy of this order downloaded from the official website of this Court.

Urgent Xerox certified copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties, subject to compliance with all requisite formalities.
