The petitioners have restricted their prayer on the question that the papers required to be sent to the appropriate authority for making a reference after failure of conciliation has not been sent to the appropriate authority.

Today, they make their prayer simply for a direction upon the Conciliation Officer being the Regional Labour Commissioner (Central), Government of India, Asansol, Paschim Bardhaman to send all papers

I direct the Conciliation Officer to send all papers within a period of two weeks, if not already sent, to the appropriate authority so that the reference can be made.
