W.P.A. 958 of 2021

Kaibha Rani Roy Versus
The State of West Bengal & Ors.

Ms. Sabita Khutia (Bhunya)
.....for the petitioner.

Mr. Bikramaditya Ghosh
Ms. Bedashruti Bose
...For the State.

Affidavit of service filed in Court today is kept with the record.

The husband of the petitioner was an Assistant Teacher of a Primary School, Darjeeling who retired from service on 13.12.1974 and died on 09.12.1986. The petitioner had completed all his pension-related formalities after the death of her husband. However, the concerned authorities delayed and released the arrear family pension amount on 23.12.2020. The petitioner herein seeks interest to be paid on the arrear family pension for the interim period of delay in receipt of the arrear family pension.

There is a considerable delay in filing of the writ petition, which the petitioner seeks to justify by stating that there is no statutory period of limitation and neither of the parties has suffered due to this delay. It is the submission of the petitioner that accordingly the petition should be allowed. The petitioner relies upon an order in W.P. No. 17557 (W) of 2017 (Narayan Chandra Saha Vs. State of West Bengal & Ors.) wherein a co-ordinate Bench had relied upon the Supreme Court judgement in the case of Union of India Vs. Tarsem Singh, reported in (2008) 8 S.C.C. 648 on the issue of limitation relating to payment or re-fixation of pay or pension wherein the Apex Court had held that relief may be granted in spite of delay as it does not affect the rights of the third party.

In view of the above and after hearing the learned Counsel for the petitioner, I direct the Director of Pension, Provident Fund and Group Insurance, Government of West Bengal as also the concerned Treasury Officer to pay interest to the petitioner @8% per annum on the arrear family pension calculated from 01.11.2010 till the date of payment. Such payment is to be made within a period of eight weeks from the date of communication of this order.

The writ petition is disposed of, however, no order as to costs.

Since no affidavit is called for, the allegations made in the writ petition are deemed to have been denied.

Urgent certified website copy of this order, if applied for, be made available to the parties upon compliance with the requisite formalities.
