Order On Board

17/02/2021

Heard on admission.

1. Though it is argued by learned counsel for the appellant that a T-shirt seized from the possession of respondent No.2/accused has been found to be stained with blood, we find that all the material witnesses including eyewitness have turned hostile and the only basis to seek admission of the respondent No.2/accused is recovery of a blood stained T-shirt, which also does not show the group and origin of the blood much less that of the deceased.
2. Therefore, in our opinion, present is not a fit case for admitting the appeal of the appellant.
3. The appeal is therefore dismissed.
