Order On Board

19.01.2021

Heard.

1. The limited grievance that the petitioner has in the present writ petition is that his application for grant of license under PSARA Act, 2005 is not being processed and decided though it is over two years since the application has been made by the petitioner.
2. Considering the provisions of Section 7 of the aforesaid Act of 2005, which stipulates 60 days time within which his application has to be processed and decided and though since more than two years have already lapsed after the petitioner has made application and the decision is awaited, this court is of the opinion that the writ petition itself can be disposed of at this juncture directing the respondents No.1&2 to take a decision on the said application of the petitioner at the earliest preferably within a period of 30days from the date of receipt of copy of this order. It is expected that the respondents No.1&2 shall take a decision in accordance with provisions of the aforesaid Act of 2005.

3. The nature of dispute which has been raised clearly disturb the conscious as it would be real disrespect for the army people for which there are certain measures which are made by way of statute to get the privilege.
4. This court has not expressed any opinion so far as eligibility of the petitioner is concerned. The authorities are free to take a decision on the merits of the application that the petitioner has filed.
5. The Writ Petition accordingly stands disposed of.
