Order

08.02.2021

Heard.

1. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner may be given a liberty to execute the award passed in favour of the petitioner to get it executed as a decree of the Civil Court as per Section 36 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act 1996 (henceforth 'the Act 1996').
2. In view of such submission, since the award is passed under Sub-

Section 6 of Section 3G of the National Highways Act 1956 (henceforth 'the Act 1956') and makes the Arbitration and Conciliation Act 1996 applicable, therefore as per Section 36 of the Act 1996, the award would be executable before the competent Court.

3. In view of the submission made by the Counsel, the writ petition finally stands disposed off.
