Hon'ble Shri Justice P. Sam Koshy

Order on Board

08.09.2021

1. The present writ petition was filed challenging the award dated 26.08.2014 passed by the Labour Court, Korba in Case No. 22/ID Act/2013/(Ref.). Vide the impugned award, the Labour Court has granted the relief of reinstatement without backwages.
2. The respondent-worker involved in the present case is said to have employed as daily wage worker under the petitioners from 01.04.1990 to 28.02.1995. Thereafter the worker was discontinued from service abruptly. The worker raised a dispute under the Industrial Disputes Act and the matter stood referred to the Labour Court. The Labour Court taking into consideration the pleadings and the evidence which have been brought on record on either side, vide impugned award has answered the reference in the affirmative holding that the respondent-worker is entitled for the benefit of reinstatement without backwages.

3. The impugned award dated 26.08.2014 was challenged by way of present writ petition which was filed by the petitioners on 21.01.2015.
4. From the documents enclosed along with the writ petition itself it shows that the respondent-worker was reinstated by the authorities as early as on 11.09.2017 and from 11.09.2017 onward the worker has been continuously working under the petitioners.
5. Today when the matter is taken up for final hearing, counsel for the respondent-worker submits that pending the writ petition before this Court, the State Government itself has vide order dated 08.03.2019 regularized the services of the worker and since then he is working as a regular employee under the petitioners.
6. Given the aforesaid submission by the counsel for the respondent-worker, particularly taking note of the fact that the respondent-worker stood reinstated in service pending the writ petition, the equity stands in favour of the worker who firstly was reinstated immediately by the petitioners w.e.f. 11.09.2017 and since then he has put in more than 4 years of continuous service and meanwhile he also stands regularized under the petitioners. Moreover, by efflux of time the respondent-worker has also served the petitioners for quite some time and is at the fag end of his service career where only few years of service is left for her retirement.

7. Under the circumstances, this court is inclined to dispose of the writ petition holding that the award passed by the Labour Court does not warrant any interference at this stage in the light of subsequent development that has transpired particularly in favour of the respondent-worker.
8. The writ petition accordingly stands disposed of maintaining the award passed by the Labour Court.
