This application under Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure has been filed by the applicant who is apprehending his arrest in connection with Crime No.40/2021 registered at Police Station – Navagarh, District Janjgir-Champa (C.G.) for commission of the offence punishable under Section 376 of Indian Penal Code.
3. The prosecution story, in brief, is that the prosecutrix made a report at police station Navagarh alleging therein that the applicant committed sexual intercourse with her many times on the pretext of marriage and, thereafter, he refused to marry her. Based on this, offence under Section 376 of IPC has been registered against the applicant.
4. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant is innocent and has been falsely implicated in the crime in question. He further submits that the applicant is neighbour of the prosecutrix and there was relationship between them for last two years. The prosecutrix is major and she is the consenting party to the act of the applicant. Therefore, the applicant may be granted anticipatory bail.

5. Counsel for the State however opposes the application for anticipatory bail.
6. The applicant and complainant both had been in love affair for last two years and they are the neighbourer.
7. After hearing counsel for the parties and considering the facts and circumstances of the case, further considering the nature of allegation against the applicant and quality of evidence, without commenting anything on merit of the case, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to grant anticipatory bail to the applicant.
8. Accordingly, the application is allowed. It is directed that in the event of arrest of the applicant in connection with aforesaid crime number, he shall be released on bail on his furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs.25,000/- with one surety for the like sum to the satisfaction of the concerned arresting/investigating officer or the court concerned, as the case may be, with the following terms and conditions:
