Hon'ble Shri Justice P. Sam KoshyOrder On Board*10.06.2021

1. The dispute in the present writ petition seems to be inter se between the petitioner and Respondent No. 4, both of whom claimed to be the legally wedded wife of the deceased Lt. Ram Bahadur Yadav, who died working on the post of Head Constable under the respondents No. 1, 2 & 3.
2. The plain perusal of the pleadings and the contention put forth by the petitioner itself shows that there are highly disputed question of facts and which would be required to determine as to who among the two is the legally wedded wife and for deciding the same both oral as well as documentary evidences would be required and the High Court exercising the writ jurisdiction would find it difficult to decide all the disputed question of facts.

3. In view of the same, the writ petition at this juncture is disposed of with liberty to avail appropriate remedy available to him from the competent Civil Court so as to establish her claim before the respondents No. 1 & 2.
4. The writ petition stands accordingly disposed of.
