Heard.

1. The limited prayer in this petition is that the petitioner if he is subjected to a departmental enquiry, he may be given opportunity of hearing before any orders are passed.
2. Learned counsel for the respondent do not object to the same.
3. Even otherwise, it is obvious that when a departmental enquiry is initiated and conducted, the delinquent is required to be heard and given opportunity of hearing following the procedure of natural justice.
4. With such observation, the petition stands disposed of.
