

HIGH COURT OF CHHATTISGARH, BILASPUR

Order Sheet

CRA No. 794 of 2021

Sheikh Golu Alias Sahil Versus State Of Chhattisgarh

CRA No.771 of 2021

|            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 27/08/2021 | Proceeding through video conferencing. Mr. Vivek Kumar Shrivastava, counsel for the appellant in CRA No.794/2021. None for the appellant in CRA No.794/2021. Mr. Arijit Tiwari, P.L. for the State. Both the appeals arise out of the same judgment rendered by the Court of Additional Sessions Judge, Bhatapara, District Baloda Bazar, in Sessions Trial No.H-30/2018. Since, CRA No.771/2021 has been preferred by engaging a counsel of appellant's choice and the said appeal has been preferred prior in point of time, the subsequent appeal i.e. CRA No.794/2021 preferred through High Court Legal Services Committee does not survive for adjudication. Accordingly, CRA No.794/2021 is dismissed as not maintainable. Post the CRA No.771/2021 after three weeks. Sd/-(Prashant Kumar Mishra)Acting Chief Justice Sd/-(Rajani Dubey)Judge |