1. The grievance of the petitioner in the present writ petition seems to be the inaction on the part of the respondents in not convening the DPC for promotion to the post of Joint Director, Prosecution from the post of Dy. Director, Prosecution.
2. According to the petitioner, he has been working on the post of Dy. Director, Prosecution since long. He fulfills all the requisite criteria in terms of the promotion rules governing the field for promotion to the post of Joint Director, Prosecution. He further submits that post of Joint Director category to which the petitioner belongs is lying vacant since long. The counsel for the petitioner refers to the rules governing the field framed by
