Hon'ble Shri Justice P. Sam KoshyOrder on Board*12/02/2021

1. The challenge in the present writ petition is to the declaring of the petitioner ineligible for selection to the post of Lecturer(Physics). Rejection of the petitioner was on the ground that petitioner had produced the domicile certificate of the period that was subsequent to the results being declared.

2. Counsel for the petitioner tried to challenge the very Clause in the advertisement which mandates for providing of the certificates before results were declared.
3. This Court is of the firm view that law in this regard is well settled to the extent that, having known the conditions to the advertisement well in advance and also having participated in the same after at a later stage it has been found that petitioner does not fulfill the conditions stipulated in the advertisement and being declared ineligible, the petitioner thereafter cannot turn around and challenge the advertisement or conditions to the advertisement or action on the part of the respondents whereby the petitioner has been declared ineligible in terms of the conditions to the advertisement.
4. The writ petition being devoid of merits deserves to be and stands accordingly rejected.
