Heard.

1. The accused/applicant has moved this first bail application under Section 439 of Criminal Procedure Code for releasing him on regular bail during trial in connection with Crime No. 224/2021 registered at Police Station-Mowa (Pandri), District-Raipur (C.G.) for the offence punishable under Sections 294, 327, 506 of the IPC and Section 25 & 27 of Arms Act.
2. Prosecution case in brief is that, on 17.10.2021, the complainant lodged a written report in the police station alleging therein that when the complainant along with two other persons were going to the shop of liquor on their bike, they were stopped by the applicant and started asking them for money to purchase liquor, but when they denied to give money, the present applicant pulled out a knife and caused simple injuries to them on their legs. Based on this, offence has been registered against the present applicant.

3. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant is innocent and has been falsely implicated in the crime in question. He further submits that the applicant is in jail since 17.10.2021, there is no likelihood of his case being decided in near future, therefore, the present applicant may be released on bail.
4. On the other hand, counsel for the State opposes the bail application and submits that the applicant is a habitual offender; therefore, he may not be released on bail.
5. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the case diary.
6. Taking into consideration the nature and gravity of the offence, facts and circumstances of the case, detention period of applicant that he is in jail since 17.10.2021 and the trial is likely to take some time for its final disposal, this Court is of the view that it is a fit case to release the applicant on bail. Accordingly, the application is allowed.
7. Accused/applicant is directed to be released on bail on his executing a personal bond in the sum of Rs. 1,00,000/- with one local surety in the like sum to the satisfaction of the trial Court. He is directed to appear before the trial Court on each and every date given to him by the said Court.
