CORAM: S. V. GANGAPURWALA &
R. N. LADDHA, JJ.

DATE: 23rd JULY, 2021

PER COURT:

1. The petitioner is challenging the proclamation dated 10.08.2017.

2. The learned Counsel for the petitioner admits that the petitioner had earlier filed a writ petition challenging the same proclamation dated 10.08.2017. The said writ petition is still pending.

3. The petitioner ought not to have filed the present petition. The subsequent letter is sequel to the proclamation dated 10.08.2017. The petitioner could have amended the earlier writ petition.

4. As the writ petition challenging the proclamation dated 10.08.2017 is already pending, we dispose of the present writ petition. The petitioner may take appropriate steps in the pending writ petition.

5. Writ Petition as such is disposed of. No costs.
