DATE : 22ND JULY, 2021.

FINAL ORDER :

. Mr. Venjane, the learned advocate for review applicants submits that, the review applicants in all these matters had passed the Teachers Eligibility Test (TET) examination in December 2019, August 2020 and February 2021 respectively. Their services need to be protected. The learned counsel refers to the judgment dated 28.01.2020 of the Division Bench of this Court at Principal Seat at Bombay in Writ Petition No. 747 of 2020 with other connected writ petitions. The learned counsel submits that, in the said cases, the Division Bench had granted protection to the services of the petitioners who had appeared for the examination in January 2020.

2. Mr. Karlekar, the learned Assistant Government Pleader for non applicants/State and Mr. Nikam, the learned counsel for non applicant No. 6 submit that, the cut off date to clear the TET examination was 31st March 2019.

3. The applicants are seeking review of the judgment and order of this Court dated 11.06.2021 passed in bunch of writ petitions bearing Writ Petition No. 4904 of 2020 with other connected writ petitions.

4. In the said judgment, we had held that the cut off date to clear the TET examination was 31st March, 2019. The Central Government has also rejected the request of the State Government to extend the cut off date. We had relied on the judgment of the Apex Court in a case of State of Uttar Pradesh Vs. Anand Kumar Yadav reported in (2018) 13 SCC 560.

5. The Division Bench of this Court in Writ Petition No. 747 of 2020 under judgment and order dated 28.01.2020 has also observed that, the petitioners must realize that they had no right to continue, if they fail to clear the test and they cannot dictate to the Government or to the Court that no such tests should be held or even after the cut off date their job should be protected if they do not attain this qualification. The cut off date to obtain qualification of TET as observed was 31st March, 2019.

6. In the light of that, no case for review is made out. The review applications as such are rejected. No costs.
