

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY BENCH AT AURANGABAD

909 FIRST APPEAL NO. 2328 OF 2019

ASHOK MADHAVRAO MANWATKAR VERSUS
THE STATE OF MAHARASHTRA AND OTHERS

Advocate for Appellant : Mr. D.M. Kakade.
AGP for Respondent Nos. 1 & 2 : Mr. G.O. Wattamwar.
Advocate for Respondent No. 3 : Mr. R.B. Deshpande.

CORAM : SHRIKANT D. KULKARNI, J.
DATED : 01.07.2021

PER COURT :

1. Learned Advocate Mr. S.G. Joshi, submits that he has given no objection to the another Advocate to appear in this matter on behalf of the appellant and he may be discharged. Learned Advocate Mr. D.M. Kagade, submits that he has instructions to appear in this matter.
2. In view of submissions of learned Advocate Mr. D.M. Kagade, learned Advocate Mr. S.G. Joshi is hereby discharged in this matter.
3. Heard learned Advocate Mr. Kagade for the appellant, learned AGP Mr. Wattamwar for respondent Nos. 1 and 2 and learned Advocate Mr. Deshpande for respondent No. 3.
4. Learned Advocate Mr. Kabade, invited my attention to the compromise pusion placed on record which is dated 24.04.2021. He submits that Appeal has been amicably settled between the parties and compromise may be recorded. Learned Advocate Mr. Deshpande for respondent No. 3 / acquiring body and learned AGP Mr. Wattamwar for respondent Nos. 1 and 2 also submit that the compromise is arrived between the parties.

5. The compromise placed on record marked as 'X' is taken on record.

6. In view of amicable settlement between the parties and in view of compromise pusion marked at article 'X', the First Appeal stands disposed of. No order as to costs.

7. As per the compromise, if the amount deposited by the acquiring body is lying with the registry, the claimant / appellant is permitted to withdraw the same.

(SHRIKANT D. KULKARNI, J.)