Date : 5th February, 2021

P.C.

Consistently, there has been no representation for the appellants. On 22.01.2021, this Court recorded that, if there is no representation for the appellants by next adjournment, as the matter pertains to 2016, this Court will be constrained to dismiss the First Appeal for non-prosecution.

2. Today too, none represents the appellants. We, therefore, reckon that the appellants may not be interested in pursuing the First Appeal and dismiss the same for non-prosecution.
