

CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION
WRIT PETITION NO.6443 OF 2019

Mr.Prajakt Arjunwadkar, for Petitioner.
Mr.D.V. Sutar a/w Nirmal P. for Respondent Nos.1 to 3.

P.C.:

3] In an appeal filed by the respondents against the order of trial Court the appellate Court reversed the order of the trial Court to the extent of restraining the respondents from interfering with the possession of the Petitioner over the suit property. The appellate Court, however, maintained the order in respect of restraining the respondents from creating third party interest.

4] There is no interim order in favour of the Petitioner in the present Petition. As such, there is no interim injunction in favour of the Petitioner since last more than two years. In the facts and circumstances of the case, in my view instead of examining the matter on merits, it would be appropriate to direct the trial Court to decide the suit within a stipulated period. Hence, the order :

i] The trial Court is directed to decide the suit in question, as expeditiously as possible, but in any case, within one year from today.

ii] With these directions, Writ Petition stands disposed of.
