P.C.

. This Second Appeal is circulated for extension of ad-interim relief which was operating during the pendency of the appeal. The Second Appeal is dismissed by a judgment and order dated 15/3/2021, thereby confirming the decree of partition and separate possession. It appears that by an order dated 17/9/2019, in Civil Application No.1410/2018, it was directed that no coercive steps shall be taken by the respondent / decree holder in the execution proceedings.

2. Having heard the learned counsel for the parties, delivery of possession is hereby stayed for a period of eight weeks from today. It is made clear that the execution proceedings can continue.
