CORAM : BHARATI DANGRE, J.

DATED : 11 OCTOBER 2021

PC. :

. By the aforesaid applications, modification is sought of the order dated 20 December 2019. By the said order, two contingencies were contemplated by my predecessor (Justice R.D. Dhanuka); one being withdrawal of the 50% amount deposited by the Appellant with the concerned reference court on furnishing an undertaking to the effect that in case of the appeal being allowed, the claimants would return the amount with interest as the court deem only after filing of undertaking. The court made it clear that the amount aforesaid would be withdrawn only after filing of such an undertaking. The second contingency contemplated was the Respondents were permitted to withdraw 50% of the amount deposited by the Appellant, but this was subject to the stipulation that the withdrawal would be conditional on furnishing bank guarantee of a Nationalized Bank in the reference court which shall include interest at the rate of 18% p.a. on the amount which shall be withdrawn by the Applicants. The bank guarantee was directed to be kept alive for five years and thereafter, for a like period during the pendency of the appeal.

2. Heard learned Counsel for the Applicants, who seek modification of the order on the ground that in some identical appeals, some persons from the village were permitted to withdraw 60% amount on furnishing an undertaking and 40% were permitted to furnish bank guarantee of a Nationalized Bank. That can be no reason for modification of the order as this court, on deliberating the issue and hearing Counsel for the Applicants and Respondents, deemed it appropriate to pass such an order. It do not find any illegality or perversity merely because in some other set of applications, it was otherwise.

3. The Applications are, therefore, rejected.

4. Needless to state that the time-frame prescribed in the order, of which modification is sought, since it has expired, stands extended and will be counted taking the order passed today as starting point.
