2 Perusal of the Consent Terms would reveal that the various proceedings filed between the parties inter-se which are set out in paragraph no.1 of the Consent Terms would stand dispose off in view of the remaining clauses in form of the compensation as mentioned in clause (2) as well as the time lines which have been set out along with the arrangement being arrived at, as regards the custody of the child Aadrit, aged 7 years. Apart from this, in form of other terms, the parties have decided to bury their entire dispute leaving no traces behind and the terms to that effect are also included in the Consent Terms.

3 Pertinent to note that since the Consent Terms would be disposed of, various proceedings pending between the parties and the Consent Terms contain a stipulation with the effect in paragraph no.3 that the parties will file a Divorce Petition, seeking divorce by mutual consent before the Family Court at Pune on or before 29th January 2021, the Consent Terms shall be filed before the said Court and the learned Judge, Family Court at Pune would pass appropriate orders giving effect to the said Consent Terms.

As far as the present application is concerned, the applicant is already granted protection from arrest and in the wake of arrangement worked out between the parties reduced into writing and pursuant to which they are expected to make a request for mutual divorce along with the terms and conditions which are agreed between themselves, the order dated 16th October 2020 is made absolute.
