CORAM : A. S. CHANDURKAR J.

DATE : November 18, 2021

Heard the learned counsel for the applicant and perused the grounds of review raised in the application. It was sought to be urged that the Court was not justified in holding that the claim as made before the learned Arbitrator was barred by limitation. Reliance is also sought to be placed on various documents which were not on record in the proceedings under Section 37 of the Act of Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

It is seen that the grounds raised are such that would require consideration in appellate jurisdiction. In absence of any error apparent on the face of record, I am not inclined to entertain the review application. The applicant is free to raise appropriate challenges in appropriate proceedings. The applications are dismissed.
