3. This is an application for condonation of delay in preferring appeal challenging judgment and order of conviction dated 10.2.2020 passed in Sessions Case No.86/2017 by learned Additional Sessions Judge, Chandrapur whereby the applicant is directed to suffer imprisonment for life. The delay is of 444 days.

6. Since the applicant is in jail for undergoing life imprisonment, in our view, though there is delay of more than 1902, an opportunity should be given to the applicant to challenge the judgment and order of conviction imposed upon him. In this view of the matter, learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State fairly submits that an opportunity should be given to the applicant to challenge the judgment and order of conviction.
