

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
NAGPUR BENCH, NAGPUR

Civil Application (F) No.664/2020 in F.A. St. 24906/2019

The Assistant Director Employees State Insurance, Nagpur and another. Vs M/s Tulsi Ratan
 Plastic Pvt. Ltd., Nagpur.

Office notes, Office Memoranda of Coram, appearances, Court's orders or directions and Registrar's orders.

Court's or Judge's Orders

Shri B.P. Maldhure, Adv for appellants.

CORAM : S.M. MODAK, J.

DATE : 25th JUNE, 2021.

Hearing was conducted through Video Conferencing and the learned Counsel agreed that the audio and visual quality was proper.

2. Heard learned advocate for appellants. They want to challenge the judgment given by Employees State Insurance Court, Nagpur dated 27/09/2019. The copy was applied on 04.10.2019 and delivered on 10.10.2019.

3. The appellants took time in completing the office procedure and getting approval. That is how there is a delay of 07 days. On reading the application, it is true that it is explained properly. Without issuing notice to respondent, the delay can be condoned today itself by imposing the costs. Because otherwise also, delay can be condoned after appearance of the respondent. Hence, the order :-

ORDER

A] The delay of 07 days is condoned by depositing the costs of Rs. 1000/- in this Court within the period of 15 days. It be paid to respondent.

B] Civil application is disposed of.

First Appeal St. No. 24906/2019

 Heard Shri V.P. Maldhure, learned Advocate for the appellants.

2. The main area of contention is that the trial Court has upheld the objection about limitation taken by the present respondent. In fact, this objection about limitation was not taken during the inquiry, but it was taken only in the written notes of argument. That is how the trial Court has remanded the matter for reconsideration of the claim of the appellant for five years period earlier to 2012.

3. Issue notice before admission to respondent, returnable after six weeks.
