JUDGMENT

The matter is listed under the caption "for dismissal", today. There is no representation on the side of the appellant, once again. Even on the last hearing date i.e., on 08.04.2021, there was no representation on the side of the appellant. In fact, the learned counsel for the second respondent had earlier submitted that papers have also not been received from the appellant counsel. Therefore, it can now be inferred that the appellant is not interested to prosecute the Civil Miscellaneous Appeal. Accordingly, the Civil Miscellaneous Appeal is dismissed for non prosecution. No costs.
