M.SUNDAR, J

Ms.S.Revathy, learned counsel on record for applicant and Ms.K.Latha Parimala Vadana, learned 'Official Liquidator attached to this Court' [hereinafter 'OL' for the sake of brevity and convenience] are present.

2. To be noted, this is a hybrid mode hearing. Learned counsel for applicant is in Videoconferencing platform and learned OL is physically present in this Court.

3. Captioned application is with a prayer for condonation of delay (to be noted, 'condonation of delay' shall be referred to as 'COD' for convenience) in filing a claim petition before OL. The reason for delay as articulated in supporting affidavit inter-alia is that the applicant received a letter dated 18.12.2020 from OL stating that the last date for submission of claim in Form 66 is 09.10.2019.

4. Learned OL submits that she does not oppose the COD prayer.

5. This Court having perused affidavit filed in support of captioned application, having heard learned counsel for applicant, having being satisfied that the reason adduced is acceptable and more particularly having noticed that the OL does not oppose the COD prayer, captioned application allowed. There shall be no order as to costs.
